

In the High Court of Judicature, Bombay.

Tri day, the 5th day of August 1864.

SPECIAL APPEAL No. 275 OF 1864.

Gopal Sureshwar Palekar of the Putnagiri Division } Appellant, of the Ponbun District (Original Plaintiff)

versus

Nesher Sureshwar Phudke of the Putnagiri Division } Respondent,
of the Ponbun District
(Original Defendants)

Rs. 100 - " - "

The claim in the Original Suit was to recover 1/2 share of the profits of a village called Allegat have been lost to Plaintiff by Defendant not entering his name in a Kambolayut

Putnagiri red In Appeal No. 216 of 1860 the Sen. Assis. Judge of the District of Ponbun at the detached station the Decree of the Magistrate who had awarded Rs 50 and turned out the whole claim.

A Special Appeal was preferred in the High Court on the grounds that there have been errors in the Law in the investigation of the case which have produced errors in the decision of the case on its merits in that the lower Court has not treated treated Mr. Cameron's Judgment which was not appealed against final on all points except the one for the determination of which he remanded the case.
