^{1b} Inserted by Act 9 of 2004 – effective from 9.1.2004

(g) such other person as may be specified by the rules made under section 9 by the Joint Committee.]

(b) 'Member' means a member of either House of Parliament ²[But, save as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, does not include]—

(i) a Minister as defined in the Salaries and Allowances of Ministers Act, 1952 (58 of 1952);

(ii) ^{2a}[a Leader of the Opposition as defined in the Salary and Allowances of Leaders of Opposition in Parliament Act, 1977]; and

(iii) an Officer of Parliament as defined in the Salaries and Allowances of Officers of Parliament Act, 1953 (20 of 1953);

(c) 'New member' means a member who takes his seat in either House of Parliament after the commencement of this Act and includes a member who is re-elected or re-nominated;

(d) 'period of residence on duty' means the period during which a member resides at a place where a session of a House of Parliament or a sitting of a Committee is held or where any other business connected with his duties as such member is transacted, for the purpose of attending such session or sitting or for the purpose of attending to such other business, and includes—

(i) in the case of a session of a House of Parliament, a period of such residence not exceeding three days, immediately preceding the commencement of the session and a period of such residence, not exceeding three days, immediately succeeding the ^{2b}[date on which the House of Parliament is adjourned sine die or for a period exceeding seven days]; and

(ii) in the case of sitting of a Committee or any other business a period of such residence, not exceeding two days, immediately preceding the commencement of the business of the Committee or other business and a period of such residence, not exceeding two days immediately succeeding the conclusion of the business of the Committee or other business;

Explanation.— A member who ordinarily resides at a place where a session of a House of Parliament or a sitting of a Committee is held or where any other business connected with his duties as such member is transacted shall, for the duration of the session or sitting or the time occupied for the transaction of other business (including the three or two days immediately preceding or succeeding), be deemed to reside at such place for the purpose of attending such session or sitting or, as the case may be, for the purpose of attending to such other business;

(e) 'term of office' means,—

(a) in relation to a person who is a member at the commencement' of this Act, the period beginning with such commencement and ending with the date on which his seat becomes vacant;

^{2c}[(b) in relation to a new member,—

(i) where such new member is a member of the Council of States elected in a biennial election, or nominated, to that House, the period beginning with the date of publication of the notification in the Official Gazette notifying his name under section 71 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951; or

² Substituted by Act 55 of 1958 – effective from 30-12-1958.

^{2a} inserted by Act 33 of 1977 – effective from 18-08-1977.

^{2b} Substituted by Act 26 of 1964 – effective from 01-06-1964.

^{2c} Substituted by Act 105 of 1976 – effective from 09-09-1976.

(ii) where such new member is a member of the House of the People elected in a general election held for the purpose of constituting a new House of the People, the period beginning with the date of publication of the notification of the Election Commission under section 73 of the said Act; or

(iii) where such new member is a member of either House of Parliament elected in a by-election to that House or a member nominated to the House of the People, the period beginning with the date of his election referred to in section 67A of the said Act, or as the case may be, the date of his nomination; and ending with, in each case, the date on which his seat becomes vacant.]

3. Salaries and Daily Allowances.—A member shall be entitled to receive ^{2d}[a salary, at the rate of fifty thousand rupees per mensem] during the whole of his term of office ³[and subject to any rules made under this Act]. ⁴[an allowance at the rate of two thousand rupees for each day] during any period of residence on duty:

^{4a} [Provided that no member shall be entitled to the aforesaid allowance unless he signs the register, maintained for this purpose by the Secretariat of the House of the People or, as the case may be, Council of States, on all the days (except intervening holidays for which no such signing is required) of the session of the House for which the allowance is claimed.]

^{4b} [Provided further that the rates of salary and allowance specified in this section shall be applicable from the 18th day of May, 2009]

4. Travelling Allowance.—(1) There shall be paid to each member in respect of every journey performed by him ⁵[in India] for the purpose of attending a session of a House of Parliament or a meeting of a Committee or for the purpose of attending to any other business connected with his duties as a member, from his usual place of residence to the place where the session or the meeting is to be held or the other business is to be transacted and for the return journey from such place to his usual place of residence—

(a) if the journey is performed by rail, an amount equal to one ⁶[First] class fare plus one second class fare for each such journey, irrespective of the class in which the member actually travels;

(b) if the journey is performed by air, an amount equal to one and one fourth of the air fare for each such journey;

(c) if the journey or any part thereof cannot be performed by rail or air—

⁷[(i) where the journey or any part thereof is performed by steamer, an amount equal to one and three-fifths of the fare (without diet) for the highest class in the steamer for each such journey or part thereof, or, if there is not regular steamer service, such amount for each such journey or part thereof as may be prescribed by rules made under section 9];

⁷ Substituted by Act 55 of 1958 – effective from 30-12-1958.

- (ii) where the journey or any part thereof is performed by road, ⁸[a road mileage at the rate of sixteen rupees per kilometer] for each such journey or part thereof;

^{8a} [Provided that when Parliament is in session and the spouse of member, if any, performs such journey or part thereof by road, accompanied by such Member, in respect of which such spouse has been allowed to travel by air or partly by air and partly by rail from the usual place of residence of the Member to Delhi or back under sub-section (2) of section 6(B), the road mileage prescribed under this sub-clause shall be allowed to such Member for such journey or part thereof, subject to the condition that the total number of such journeys shall not exceed eight in a year;];

^{8b}[Provided further that where a member performs journey by road in Delhi from and to an aerodrome, he shall be paid a minimum amount of one hundred and twenty rupees for each such journey.]

^{8c}[* * * *].

Explanation.—For the purposes of sub-clause (ii) of clause (c) of this sub-section the expression 'journey' shall include the journey from and to railway station, port or aerodrome to and from the usual place of residence of the member or as the case may be, the residence of the member at the place where the session of the House of Parliament or a meeting of the Committee is to be held or where any other business is to be transacted.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), a member who performs a journey by road between places connected by rail or steamer, either wholly or in part, may draw the mileage allowance referred to in sub-clause (ii) of clause (c) of sub-section (1) in place of the travelling allowance which would have been admissible to him if he had travelled by rail or steamer, as the case may be:

^{8d}[Provided that the total amount of travelling allowance drawn by such Member for the entire journey shall not exceed the amount which would have been admissible to him had he performed such journey by rail or by steamer, as the case may be:

Provided further that the first proviso shall be applicable to such journey only where the places of the journey are connected by express, mail or superfast train.]

^{8e}[Provided also that the first proviso shall not be applicable to a member who, in the opinion of the Chairman of the Council of States or, as the case may be, the Speaker of the House of the People, is so incapacitated physically and cannot travel by air or train.]

^{8f}[Provided also that in case a member resides within a distance of three hundred kilometers from Delhi, he or his spouse, for the journey performed by him by road, may draw the mileage allowance referred to in sub-clause (ii) of clause (c) of sub-section (1) in place of the travelling allowance which would have been admissible to him had he performed such journey by rail or by road, as the case may be:

Provided also that in case a member resides in the States of Arunachal Pradesh, Assam, Manipur, Meghalaya, Mizoram, Nagaland, Sikkim or Tripura, he or his spouse may draw the mileage allowance referred to in sub-clause (ii) of clause (c) of sub-section (1) for

⁹[(3) There shall be paid to a member in respect of a journey performed by him in the course of a tour outside India undertaken in the discharge of his duties as such member, such travelling and daily allowances as may be prescribed by rules made under section 9].

^{9a} [(4) There shall be paid to a person—

- (a) who has been elected in a biennial election as a member of the Council of States but the notification in the Official Gazette notifying his name under section 71 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951 has not been published in the Official Gazette; or
- (b) who has been elected as a member of the House of the People in a general election held for the purpose of constituting a new House of the People but the notification in the Official Gazette notifying his name under section 73 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951 has not been published in the Official Gazette; or
- (c) who has been elected in a bye-election as a member of either House of Parliament or nominated as a member to either House of Parliament, an amount equivalent to the fare in respect of every journey performed by him for coming to Delhi before the publication of notification referred to in clause (a) or clause (b), or election or nomination under clause (c);

Provided that in case the journey is performed by rail or steamer or road, he shall be entitled to the reimbursement of the fare or road mileage to which a member is entitled:

Provided further that in case he performs the journey by air, such journey shall be included for the purpose of counting thirty-four journeys referred to in the first proviso to sub-section (2) of section 5].

5. Travelling allowances for intermediate journeys.— ^{9b}[(1) Where a member absents himself for less than fifteen days during a session of a House of Parliament or a sitting of a Committee for visiting any place in India he shall be entitled to receive travelling allowances in respect of such journey to such place and for the return journey—

- (a) if the journey is performed by rail equal to one ¹⁰[First] class fare for each such journey irrespective of the class in which the member actually travels;
- (b) ¹¹[if the journey, being a journey during a sitting of the Committee] is performed by air, equal to one fare by air for each such journey:

Provided that such travelling allowances shall not exceed the total amount of daily allowances which would have been admissible to such member under section 3 for the days of absence if he had not remained absent:

^{11a} [Provided further that nothing in the first proviso shall apply, if the member performs the journey by air for visiting any place in India not more than once during a sitting of the Committee.]

^{11b} [(1A) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), a member shall be entitled to receive travelling allowances in respect of every journey performed by air for

Provided that such travelling allowances, excluding the air fare, shall not exceed the total amount of daily allowances which would have been admissible to such member under section 3 for the days of absence if he had not remained absent.]

^{11d}[(2) Every member shall be entitled to an amount equal to the fare by air for each single journey by air (other than a journey referred to in section 4 or the second proviso to sub-section (1) of this section or section 6C) performed by him ^{11e}[either alone or alongwith spouse or any number of companions or relatives] from any place in India to any other place in India during his term of office as such member:]

^{11f}[Provided that the total number of such journeys under this sub-section shall be thirty-four journeys per year:]

^{11g}[Provided further that where the number of journeys performed by any member by air is ^{11h}[less than thirty-four] then, such number of journeys not performed by him shall be carried over to the following year:]

¹¹ⁱ[Provided also that the spouse or companion of a member, as the case may be, may alone perform maximum eight journeys by air from any place of India to the place in India for the purpose of visiting such member and such journey shall be included for the purpose of counting ^{11j}[thirty-four] journeys referred to in the first proviso to sub-section (2):]

^{11k}[Provided also that in case any member avails a total number of journeys by air more than thirty-four, such journeys permissible to him, in the year, he may be allowed to adjust not exceeding eight such journeys from the entitled number of journeys which may accrue in his credit in the next following year.]

^{11l}[(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2), there shall be paid to a member who, in the opinion of the Chairman of the Council of States or, as the case may be, the Speaker of the House of the People, is so incapacitated physically and therefore cannot perform air or train journey, road mileage for the entire road journey.]

Explanation I.—The provisions of clause (c) of sub-section (1) and of sub-section (2) of section 4 shall, so far as may be, apply to travelling allowances payable under this section as they apply to travelling allowances payable under that section.

Explanation II.—For the purposes of this section. "year" means,—

(i) in the case of a person who is a member at the commencement of the Salary, Allowances and Pension of Members of Parliament (Amendment) Act 1985, the year beginning with such commencement and each of the subsequent years;

(ii) in the case of a person who becomes a member after such commencement, the year beginning with the date on which his term of office as such member
