

N O T I C E

IT IS HEREBY NOTIFIED for the information of the Advocates and the parties appearing-in-person at the Principal Seat at Bombay that the Division Bench headed by the Hon'ble The Chief Justice has issued the following directions with effect from Monday, 18th November 2024 :

1. The daily board for the entire week will be released in advance on the previous Friday or Saturday.
2. With a view to reduce the time spent on mentioning, in keeping in line with the large pendency / filing and multiple assignments, restrictions will be placed on mentioning of matters.
3. Thus, no mentioning is permitted unless notice is served on the other side and the matter is extremely urgent. Mentioning for extremely urgent matters is permitted at 10.30 a.m. only. Such urgency must be set out in the praecipe itself. If it is found that there is no urgency, parties and Advocates are put to notice that the Court may impose costs.
4. For matters that are not very urgent, detailed praecipes setting out urgency shall be handed in to Court Associate. The Court will then assign appropriate date.
5. The Court may in its discretion list the matters for speaking to the minutes of the Order.
6. No mentioning is permitted for extension of time to file Affidavits or carry out amendments. Such praecipes along with relevant orders will be given to the Court Associate. Such matters will be listed the next day on the supplementary board or main board, as the case may be, under the caption for directions.

7. If the matter in which injunction has been granted upto a particular date does not reach, though listed, that order will continue until next assigned date.

8. Where the next date has been assigned for a matter and there is an order operative till the next date, but the matter is not for any reason listed, the praecipe should be handed in. Such matters will be listed the next day on the supplementary board or main board, as the case may be, under the caption for directions.

9. The Advocates and parties are put to strict notice that no mentioning is permitted for orders to be passed on administrative side. They shall give praecipes to the concerned department to be processed for administrative orders.

10. The Advocates and parties shall give their appearances in typewritten format.

11. These directions are necessitated and the above terms will be strictly adhered to.

Dated this 13th day of November, 2024.
