

N O T I C E

IT IS HEREBY NOTIFIED for the information of the Advocates and the parties appearing in person at the Principal Seat at Bombay that the Single Bench presided over by the Hon'ble Shri Justice Kamal Khata has issued the following directions : -

1. All new suits, petitions, or applications (with lodging or stamp numbers) will be listed in court on the 7th working day after office objections are cleared and a final number is given under the caption of fresh Admission.
2. No praecipe for urgent listing will be accepted on lodging or stamp number except for amendment/ restoration/ extension of time.
3. Praecipe for matters which are finally numbered will be accepted between 10.30 a.m. and 11.00 a.m.
4. Advocates and parties appearing in person, who are desirous of having the matter listed for urgent hearing or seeking change of date, may file a joint praecipe signed by both parties or, in the alternative, file a praecipe with due notice to the opposite party.
5. If a matter is very urgent and cannot wait till its next scheduled hearing, it may be placed on the Production Board subject to notice to the other side. In that case submit a praecipe to the court Associate before 10:50 a.m. The praecipe must clearly explain urgency. If the court doesn't find it urgent enough, it will not be listed.

6. Appearances must be typed (not handwritten) and should include the serial number, case number and date, name of the advocate, for whom (Plaintiff/ Petitioner/ Respondent/ Defendant) they are appearing. Handwritten appearances will not be accepted. If appearance is handwritten, the corrections or clarifications (speaking to the minutes) will not be entertained.

7. In matters fixed for hearing, learned advocates and parties appearing in person are requested to furnish soft copies of the documents proposed to be tendered during the course of arguments, to the Court Associate, at least one day prior to the scheduled date of hearing.

Dated this 23rd day of June, 2025.
