

NOTICE

Despite the notice dated 28th December 2022 prescribing a procedure and online process for applications/ praecipies for listing of matters, it is found that the matters are being repeatedly mentioned for production when there is no urgency. This will not be permitted. If any matter is mentioned for production on that very day or the next day without showing extreme urgency, circulation / production will be refused and costs of at least Rs. 10,000/- will be immediately imposed.

Further, praecipies for circulation are not permitted for matters that do not reach. Such matters will be assigned automatically fresh dates at the earliest possible.

By order.
